A NOTE FROM YOUR PASTOR...

My dear brothers and sisters in the Lord,

Having passed through Lent we are reminded to rejoice in our Risen Lord, who has conquered death and opened the gates of Heaven so that those who choose to follow Him may share in His eternal glory. I hope that all of you have had a spiritually powerful Lent, so that amid the fasting, almsgiving and prayer, this Season of Easter may be all the more spiritually fruitful for you and your families.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to all who have worked so hard in preparing our Parish for Holy Week. A special thank you to our fourth grade students at St. Peter School for helping in preparing the palms for Palm Sunday. While it can never be said enough, thank you to our ushers, musicians, cantors, readers, altar servers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, and cleaners. I truly appreciate everyone who has given so generously of their time and talent in service to Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in our parish.

I remain sincerely yours in Our Risen Lord - Fr. Secrist

Dear Fellow St. Peter parishioners,

As you travel around and see the other parishes in our diocese, do you ever notice that the majority of them have their own parish cemetery, many on the same ground as the church? Did you know St. Peter's had their own parish cemetery shortly after it opened in the 1880s? That cemetery is still in place and is inconspicuously located on the east corner of the now Heisinger Lutheran Home property. As more space was needed, a new cemetery for St. Peter's was opened just to the west. That cemetery is still very prominent on West Main Street. As that cemetery was running out of space, the pastors of St. Peter and the newly opened Immaculate Conception acquired land further west for a shared cemetery. That cemetery is what we all now know to be Resurrection Cemetery on West Truman Blvd. When the Cathedral of St. Joseph parish opened in the 1960s, Resurrection Cemetery became their parish cemetery as well.

Have you ever wondered how decisions are made regarding these three local Catholic cemeteries affectionately known as St. Peter 1, St. Peter 2 and Resurrection Cemetery? Or who all is involved with quality and care of all three cemeteries? The answer is, since St. Peter 1 was opened in the late 1880s, a volunteer board has been in place to oversee operations.

Let us take a moment to introduce ourselves as your St. Peter parish representatives on the Catholic Cemeteries of Jefferson City Board. Along with the three of us, St. Joseph & Immaculate Conception each have three parishioner representatives on the board. The goal of this board to support the working personnel and efforts at Resurrection Cemetery and St. Peter 1 & 2. That support includes budget/financial oversight, products and services offered by the cemetery, facility upkeep/maintenance and long-term planning.

We are happy to provide further information about what the Catholic Cemeteries board does, answer questions about what is going on within the cemeteries, or help anyone become more involved with their local Catholic cemetery. We are fortunate to have a Catholic cemetery for our parish to provide our family and friends' final places of rest. Not all parishes in our diocese have a Catholic cemetery available to them anymore.

Thank you and please don't hesitate to contact us if you have any questions or we can help with anything. You are always welcome as well to connect with the cemetery's Executive Director, Alan Lepper at alepper@rccjc.org or at 573.893.2751.
