Adoration with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament is Monday-Thursday beginning at 9:00 am and ending at 8:00 pm.

Additional adorers and substitutes are needed to ensure that every hour has at least two adorers. Open hours are Wednesday at 12:00 pm. Sign up to spend an hour with Jesus at adorationpro.org/saintpeterjc. Questions? Contact Claudia Galbraith at 573-220-6693

OFFERTORY CROSS: Beginning on August 6, we would like to begin again allowing parishioners to bring up the offertory during Mass. A custom at St. Peter Church is the Offertory Cross. This cross is placed at the back of the church. If you and your family would like to bring up the offertory simply take the cross from the stand and take it with you to your pew. This is a way for ushers and parishioners to know if this important need has been filled at the start of the Mass. When you go back to get the offertory gifts, place the cross back in its stand.

BISHOP MCKNIGHT'S JULY PRAYER INTENTION

NOT YET A PARISHIONER OF ST. PETER?

If you are interested, please complete and return the registration form found on our parish website at www.saintpeterjc.org

After consulting the Parish Pastoral Council, it has been decided to honor a forgotten, but notable pastor in the life of our parish by renaming the Selinger Hospitality Center: MSGR. HOOG HALL

Our current and third church building was built under the watchful eye of our seventh pastor, Monsignor Otto Joseph Stanislaus Hoog (pronounced "h-oh-g").

Born April 8, 1845 in Ettenheim, Baden, Switzerland, he accompanied his parents to America in 1854 where they settled in St. Louis. That same year both parents died during the cholera epidemic, leaving their 9-year-old son an orphan. Fr. Uland, who prepared his parents for death, placed him in St. Vincent's Orphanage where he remained for five years. During this time young Otto felt the call to the priesthood. In 1859 he began his studies at St. Louis University. In September, 1861, he traveled to the Theological Seminary of St. Francis de Sales in St. Francis, Wisconsin. Four years later he was transferred to the St. Louis Diocesan Seminary, then located in Cape Girardeau.

Fr. Hoog was ordained to the Priesthood of Jesus Christ on December 21, 1867 in St. Louis by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Junker of Alton. He celebrated his first Holy Mass at St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum on December 27, 1867. Shortly after his ordination he was sent to Lexington, Missouri where he served as pastor until he was appointed to St. Peter Church in Jefferson City, following the death of Fr. Henry Meurs.

Fr. Hoog arrived in Jefferson City on September 20, 1876. During Fr. Hoog's pastorate, he oversaw the growth and expansion of St. Peter Parish. In 1881 Fr. Hoog had the second St. Peter Church that had been built in 1856, razed to make way for the construction of the current church. The new church was completed in 1883 and dedicated on Sunday, August 12 by Rt. Rev. P.J. Ryan, then Coadjutor-Bishop of St. Louis.

The next project to be undertaken was the building of our current rectory in 1885. The first pastor of St. Peter, Fr. Murphy, dwelt in a log cabin until his reassignment in 1848. Subsequent pastors resided in a small house prior to the 1857 conversion of the original school building that had been constructed in 1854.

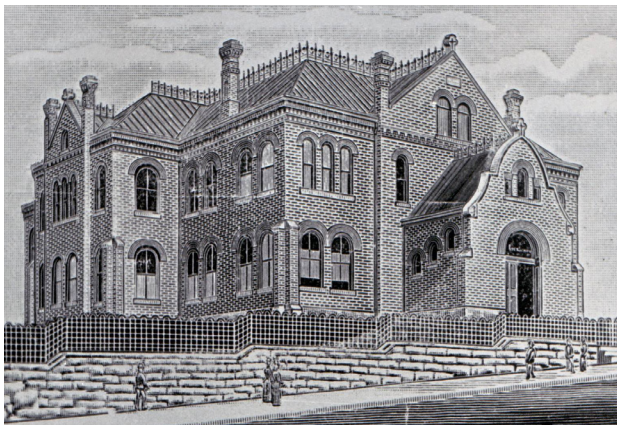

In 1889, Fr. Hoog razed the existing St. Peter School to make way for a larger two-story brick building with a basement. This structure still stands today and is currently in use as classrooms and the library today.

As a result of being made an orphan at the age of nine, one of Fr. Hoog's greatest concerns was the welfare of children. Fr. Hoog would host a breakfast for the boys and girls who finished the eighth grade. He would go to great lengths to make sure there was plenty of food for every child and that no child felt left out and fully participated in the banquet. On parishioner recounted how, "He would go from place to place around the table to urge them to make themselves at home."

During Fr. Hoog's twenty-eight year pastorate he had seventeen assistants. One of whom was Fr. Joseph Selinger who succeeded him as pastor.

Fr. Hoog was considered a great organizer and leader with a magnetic personality. He was as popular with the clergy and members of other religious beliefs as he was with the Catholic in Jefferson City.

On December 14, 1903, Archbishop Glennon asked Fr. Hoog to be his Vicar General. Protests were immediately made to the archbishop asking that Fr. Hoog remain in Jefferson City. Even Rev. J.F. Hendy, then pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Jefferson City, personally carried a petition signed by the "people at large" to St. Louis asking that Fr. Hoog be retained here. Fr. Hoog's response was that he was a soldier in the service of the Lord and he was subject to the orders of his superior, the archbishop. Fr. Hoog returned to St. Louis in August 1904. He was given the title of Monsignor on October 25, 1911 while pastor at Sts. Peter and Paul Church in St. Louis. He died on April 4, 1925 at St. Mary's Seminary in St. Louis.

ATTENTION CRAFTERS AND BUILDERS! Original slate from St. Peter Church steeple is available for your creative needs! Slate is 139 years old. Pieces measure approximately 8" w x 15" l. We have approximately 250 pieces available at a price of $5.00 each. Pick up at church only. Contact the Parish Office at 636-8159 for more information.

Crafters - great for making coasters, trays, jewelry, ornaments. The possibilities are endless.

Builders - great for an accent wall, gazebo roof, uses are only limited to your imagination.

It's BACK! St. Peter will hold another parish celebration for our parishioners and the community on Friday, August 12 from 5:00 – 9:00pm on our campus and Broadway. Live music, food trucks, country store, giveaways, kids zone and a beer garden will all be included in the fun!

We need help from our parish family to make this a great time for all. Please visit our volunteer sign up link, <https://signup.com/go/GNJwYzN> to volunteer some of your time that evening. Volunteers will receive a free t-shirt; please add your shirt size in the comments field.

Please keep in mind that all adult volunteers (graduated high school) who work with children need to be VIRTUS certified (trained and background checked). If you are an event volunteer, you only need to sign up with the VIRTUS office to have a background check run. No one will see the results of this check; it is only for safe environment purposes. The link to get this done is: <https://diojeffcity.org/safe-environment-archive/single-occasion-volunteer-form/> Please be sure this is done before the event.

Bring the family for a night of fun, food and friendship!

Items needed for the Country Store! Think Sale-A-Rama...but in the summer! We are asking for donations of cakes, pies, treats, or whatever you would like to donate that can be sold that evening! Please bring offerings from 8:00 am – 4:00 pm to Selinger Centre gym on August 12. Thank you for your contributions to our event!

Please call or email to let us know if you or a family member is hospitalized or homebound and/or if you would like the parish nurse to call, pray with you and/or assist you with questions and health care concerns. Remember that if you or a family member moves from hospital to home or rehab center or nursing care facility, the hospital cannot tell us your location due to HIPPA regulations. Please let us know their new location. Thank you! You may contact me at 636-8159 x469 or via email akuehn@saintpeterjc.org.
